TESTIMONIALS / THE PEOPLE BEHIND THE PRAISE

In Their Own Words

Live performance / Songwriting / Musicianship

> Ron's shows are always energetic, full of humour and excellent musicianship. I would not hesitate to book Ron for a show, or invite him to participate in a songwriters workshop or presentation – and I have on several occasions. Ron is an outstanding songwriter, a polished performer and a great human being.

John Kennedy

Executive Director – The Exchange, Regina

> Even as a solo performer, Ron's show commands as much public attention as a 10 piece band playing their hearts out. Engaging, humorous, and down to earth, Ron had the whole room singing and dancing with him. One of the most powerful solo performers currently living in Regina.

Grant Frew

Manager – Bushwakker Brew Pub

> Ron has a really great knack for picking up on interesting ideas, and presenting them with a new twist in an entertaining and humorous way...we were very impressed with his musical talent and songwriting, and we cant wait to see what he has in store for us next year!

Konni Horne

Entertainment Co-ordinator – Taste of Saskatchewan Festival, Saskatoon

> What I find most unique about Ron's songwriting is that he is also wildly gifted at the acoustic and electric guitar. His guitar melodies are as purposeful as his vocal melodies. Together, the two become one instrument - one whole expression of a brilliant human. When it comes to performing, rarely have I seen an individual captivate and hold an audience the way he can.

Walter Jeworski

Chief Recording Engineer – Blue Door Studios, Regina

> When I go to a performance I want to be ENTERTAINED...Ron Loos NEVER lets me down! His witty banter between interesting songs played with expert musicianship sends me home with a smile!

Jeff Corbett (aka Redbeard)

CJTR 91.3 FM

> Ron Loos is a highly energetic engaging performer with clever lyrics and strong guitar licks. He definitely added just the right spice to our festival and got the crowd laughing, sighing, and even singing along. We would recommend Ron for any event that is looking for a diverse, eclectic performer!
